

Diamond designs- familiar look, better built

At first glance Mahalaxmi AluGrill look similar to other security grill. But have a closer look. You'll soon notice that there are no visible joints-it looks and feels like the security grilles is made in one piece. Which is not far from the truth. Mahalaxmi AluGrill adds strength.... and good looks.

You can choose between the small aperture and the large aperture designs, Both are secure and economical - small aperture marginally more secure, large aperture marginally more economical. Both option are available as snaplock- a unique production process that make it possible to choose any colour to match a look fantastic!
